Patricia's answers:

1. Transparency and Accountability

"What will you do to ensure government is transparent and accountable?"

- As your elected PPC MP, I will be bold in calling out corruption and misuse of funds. I have a track record of standing up against unconstitutional mandates and lockdowns, protecting parental rights and calling out the fraud in the climate agenda.

2. Political Representation

"Will you place the rights and needs of your constituents ahead of the interests of your party or government?"

- Yes! As a PPC MP, I am allowed to vote with my conscience. The mainstream parties can not do this. I will do what I believe is right ALWAYS. My integrity can not be bought.

3. Sovereignty and Foreign Influence

"How will you honor the priorities of your constituents when faced with pressure from foreign organizations, NGO's and lobby groups?"

- I will work hard to advocate to withdraw from corrupt foreign organizations like the WHO/WEF/UN and Paris Accord. I will also work to stop foreign interference and harmful lobby groups and NGOs from dictating policy.

4. Censorship and Free Speech

"What role do you think government should have in regulating speech?"

- I will protect free speech and work to repeal censorship bills. I will advocate for any funding to be tied to balanced reporting and focus on helping local and independent media reporting truths. Government needs to stop regulating speech except where there is obvious violence being directed at an individual or group or persistent hate. X does this fairly well and could be a model.

5. Government Control/Overreach

"Under what circumstances should government restrict individual freedoms?"

- Never.

Questions to ask yourself:

"Will this candidate stand shoulder to shoulder with me to protect me and my family's future." "Will this candidate defend our shared natural rights and uphold the principles of a free society?"

- YES. I have been fighting for almost 5 years now and have earned great respect and trust from supporters across Canada.
